

Isaiah 41:10, 13

*... I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you;
I will uphold you with my righteous right hand ... I am the Lord, your God, who takes hold of your right hand ...*

*I*n our younger years, we rebelled when others made decisions on our behalf. Today we wish that others would decide where we should live and how to manage our finances. For as long as our minds are still clear, we owe it to ourselves to make our own decisions. The future is a mystery to all of us, precisely so that we would trust the God of the future.

*You are with us; therefore we need not fear. You are our God.
You direct our lives with Your saving, victorious right hand.
Amen.*

Isaiah 46:4

Even to your old age and grey hairs I am he, I am he who will sustain you. I have made you and I will carry you; I will sustain you and I will rescue you.

*I*f we could only see God's heart! He gives us life so we can worship Him in freedom. He cares for us so our hands can be free to work and serve Him. If we could only believe that the One who made us would never give up on us and never abandon us. The living God commits to caring for us to the end of our days.

At Your Word we come to You, Lord. We confess: You are God, our Saviour. You are God, there is no other. Amen.
