

Matthew 5:23-24

“Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift.”

When someone does us wrong, we do not recover from it until we have forgiven them. There are two great moments in your spiritual life: when God forgives you in Christ, and when you grant others forgiveness. Forgiveness is the smell of the flower that spreads when it is trampled upon. This is the key to peace and peace of mind.

Make me as generous with my forgiveness as You are, my Lord. Amen.

1 Peter 1:22

Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for your brothers, love one another deeply, from the heart ...

*L*ove is the best way to truly help one another. If you look back on your life, you will find the things you did that were worth the trouble are the things you did out of love. You learn what love is by loving. Love is an act of faith and he who has little faith, will also have little love.

God of love, help me to spread my love every day, wherever You may send me. Amen.
